

Untitled Document

The Tierpoort Seniors were invited to 'Lunch with the Mafia' on 3 July at Royal Jontica in Garstfontein F

Hostess Maryna Steyn welcomed the seniors with open arms. The welcoming drink was "De Vino"

Andre Fourie, left, and Johan Schorr conspiring

The introduction was an interactive discussion about the interests and attractions that Italy has to o

"Al Camone", Theresa Joubert

Newcomers Dawid and Marietha Bodenstein

A Mafia crime party game followed where each table had a Mafia member with a gun, a doctor, a murdered person and a detective, all in great secret. Members had to negotiate carefully to get to the bottom-line of the game.

Dieter Laubinger as the detective

The menu to follow suited the theme perfectly. The staple food of the Italian street woman,

Lunch with the mafia

Tuesday, 23 July 2019 11:21

---

Puttanesca, was served with toasted ciabatta on the side. Puttanesca consists of pasta with anchovies and Italian tomato sauce.

Lemon cake with cream cheese ended this fun-filled morning.