

Untitled Document

A network of people who steal dogs in South Africa and transport them to Angola has recently been bus

It is suspected that these dogs are used for dog fights, breeding and security purposes in Angola. Investigation into these thefts prompted the National Animal Welfare Task Team (NAWTT) to offer

Photographs on the National Animal Welfare Task Team's Facebook page of stolen dogs that have

"If you experience any problems with the police refusing to take down the case, please contact me dire

Santa recommended that people micro chip their dogs and keep them at the back of their house, n

If your dog had been stolen, you can distribute pamphlets at post boxes in your area and advertise

What to do when your dog has been stolen

Wednesday, 21 November 2012 05:36

You can call NAWTT's Santa Lourens at 082-568-7343. Join the National Animal Welfare Task Team