

Untitled Document

Petro Lemmer

A concussed Yorkie found on the grass verges of the N4 highway might have jumped from a car window

While travelling east from Pretoria along the N4 in the vicinity of Hazeldean homestead on Saturday

The colour and shape of the unidentified object looked very like that of a Yorkshire terrier. After stopping

My daughter Ronéll carefully picked up the tiny creature, which looked as if its back was broken and

Petro Lemmer and dr Lanina Moos with the Yorkie

With the dog lying limp on Ronéll's lap, she wetted her finger with some left-over soy milk we had i

We realized that the animal needed veterinary care as soon as possible. We drove to the closest v

I then phoned dr Lanina Moos, who has a practice in Silverton, and asked whether I could bring th

We keep wondering how this pedigreed miniature Yorkie ended up in the grasses of the N4 road

The Yorkie that was entangled in grass next to the N4 highway

He sported a very colourful body harness as well as a collar around his neck, so he cannot be an aban

Is this your brave little Yorkie?

Thursday, 25 September 2014 16:28

I phoned the owners of Hazeldean farm, but they didn't know of anybody in the vicinity who has or

Dr Moos found that the dog, a male estimated to be about four years old, had concussion as well a

If he belongs to you, call dr Moos at 012-804-5603 or 082-559-8873.